First Quarter Recap

We are rounding out the first quarter of 2021 and looking back on the big impact we were able to make because of YOUR support!

In the first quarter of 2021, we were able to serve 395 men!

In the coming months, we are looking to increase that number in Dallas and also expand our service to even more men...

in Fort Worth as we began working with the Texas Department of Criminal Justice Reentry and Rehabilitation Divisions in March. A new collaboration with the Core Civic Fort Worth Transitional Center is our first step in this new initiative, providing sets of clothes to newly released men coming to live in that facility until they obtain employment and can find a new home. We are grateful for this exciting opportunity that is anticipated to serve over 200 men in 2021.

in Tyler and other East Texas Communities through East Texas Giving Day. This fundraising event will enable us to serve an anticipated 200 East Texas men this year. Give now through April 27 and the first $3,000 in donations will be matched dollar for dollar...

New Partnership With Soles4Souls

Early this year, a supporter of One Man’s Treasure connected us with Soles4Souls, a non-profit organization that distributes shoes and clothing in the U.S. and around the world through partnerships with other nonprofits serving those in need. As a recipient partner, One Man’s Treasure will now be able to receive much-needed shoes and boots periodically at only the cost of shipping from Soles4Souls warehouse to the clothes closet.

The first shipment arrived on March 23rd. Volunteers, including two of our past clients from the Prison Entrepreneurship Program, joined members of our Board and staff and volunteers, unloaded 500 pairs of boots and 100 pairs of shoes into the clothes closet warehouse. Shoes and boots have already been sent out in sets of clothing and been very appreciated by the men who received them.
“Wow! When I ask for a pair of work boots, I never expected anything like this. I feel BLESSED AND HIGHLY FAVORED! Andrew is a member of the Prison Entrepreneur Program

What a blessing this will be to help meet the needs of our clients over the next few months when the right size shoes are not available from donations when we need them. We are grateful to Soles4Souls for this new partnership!

Client Testimony
In a conversation with our Executive Director, Curtis, who was incarcerated for 25 years, expressed how much things had changed in the world while he was in prison. A man of deep faith, he said he was going to take it slow and begin to look for employment as God led him to begin a different life. After he received his set of clothes, he sent the following message.

“To all the wonderful vessels of God at One Man’s Treasure, thank you so much for your generosity and your kind support. I will always be grateful to you and I will never forget how much love you’ve shown to me and so many others, may God continue to bless you and your ministry.

Sincerely, Curtis

In the News...
April is Second Chance Month and our Board Member and CEO of the Prison Entrepreneurship Program, Bryan Kelley, was highlighted by the 4th Purpose Foundation. Read more here.

BRYAN KELLEY
Second Chance Month Profile

Today’s profile features Bryan Kelley. Bryan served time in prison for 22 years and has been out of prison for 7 years since his release. He currently resides in Houston, TX where he works as the CEO of the Prison Entrepreneurship Program, a non-profit that pioneers innovative programs that connects the nation’s top executives, entrepreneurs, and MBA students with inmates through entrepreneurial passion and servant leadership to transform lives, restore families, and rebuild communities.

“The secret to success in life is not a startup business, but a startup life. A startup life takes vision and commitment, but it also takes community. No one gets there alone; we were made by community for community.”
